Virtues

Next week we will be learning about Obedience and we will update you fortnightly on what virtues we will be learning about.

Going 'Up Country'

Some of you already know that Mrs. Davies' husband is currently walking from Land's End to John O'Groats, to raise money for Cornwall Hospice Care. He is walking in memory of Mrs Sara Illsley, who was the Nursery Nurse in Class 1 at Kehelland. Mrs. Davies has walked 20 of the 90 days with him, from Land's End to Minehead during the Easter holidays, and from Birdlip to Chipping Campden over the May Bank Holiday. If you are interested in seeing his progress, or would like to donate to this worthy cause, please go to:

'8th May Plastic Free Day'

Thank you to all the parents who supported us on our Plastic Free Day. This was organised across Cornwall by Final Straw, to show appreciation of the work of Sir David Attenborough, on his 93rd birthday, and to heighten awareness of our overuse of plastic. The children's packed lunches were packaged in a variety of more eco-friendly ways - in paper, foil, kitchen towel, reused plastic bags and multi-use plastic containers. The children showed a keen understanding of the problem and an awareness of how we can improve our behaviour and look after our planet. It would be wonderful if children could continue to bring their sandwiches in these alternative packagings. We will be looking closely at how we are using plastic in the course of the school day and attempting to make changes. Our first target is the way the fruit and vegetables for KS1 are packaged- all items come in plastic bags and worse still, the tomatoes are in black trays, sealed with non- recyclable plastic film! Class 1 will be writing letters to the suppliers to see if this can be changed. Photos of the packed lunches can be found on the website under 'News'.
