Message from Miss Harvey

Dear Parents

Once again a very busy week here in school!

Today we have enjoyed our first official Field on Friday - with children with wellies out on the field at lunchtime. A couple of these have gained some mud on their uniforms - it is our hope that this will reduce as we learn to play safely but if parents want to add waterproof trousers, you are welcome to do this. They will need to fit over the uniform and, as always, we ask that they are fully labelled before they come into school.

Some of us spent our time on the field watching the new gate go up. This will add to school security without reducing access to the site. The gates are part of the larger scope of works paid for by Truro and Penwith Multi Academy Trust Improvement Grant which we secured last term. With more works planned, we will let you know of any changes in our routines as soon as possible.

Flexibility

The new gates have given us all the chance to practice flexibility! I have been really impressed this week with the growth in understanding of how we can support others by being flexible. Children have been noticing the flexibility in others and giving thanks to each other around the school when it has been seen. We are continuing this next week and will be looking at how flexibility helps us all to achieve more.
