Dear Parents

Thank you so much for being so supportive in keeping unwell children at home this week and taking them for tests where symptoms have been seen. These actions help us to keep the school running as normally as possible. We have not seen a further increase in cases this week.

It's been another busy week in school with lots of extra training and development courses for our adults to attend as well as a busy week of learning for all the children. Class one continued to work on their skills and even managed to hide treasure for Mrs Johnson to find. Class three have continued to explore African geography, learning the names and the position of some of the many nations that make up this fascinating continent.

Afterschool play – with the appreciation of how lucky we are to have wonderful outdoor space, could we ask that children not play with school equipment at the end of the school day. We have had several Polydron pieces broken this week. This is a wonderful resource, and we would like to try and keep it for as long as possible.

Virtue

Today sees the end of our focus on determination. In school, we are celebrating all the children for their effort in developing this virtue. Class 2 have shown determination when learning the division facts for the 10 x table – well-done, class 2!

Determination helps us all in so many ways... in fact, we need determination as a character strength when working on our other virtues, or we will slip into our old habits.

Asking your children the following questions will help them to form a deeper understanding of what determination is.

- What does determination look like when learning to ride or swim?
- What does determination look like when looking for treasure?
- What does determination look like when your homework is taking a long time to complete?

Autumn is here.

We have started to notice a definite turn in the weather with more dew remaining on the grass and a few days where the day just has not warmed up! We ask that as the seasons change all children have a warm and waterproof coat to put on for playtime and lunchtime.

Our Pebbles are really enjoying their wild time on a Thursday afternoon, but could we ask that they all have coats and legs covered by either trousers or tights - as we would not want them to miss out on this outdoor learning due to feeling cold. I appreciate your support in this.

Week 2

Swimming

Please be aware that Carn Brea do not allow swimmers to wear goggles made from tempered glass, nor ones that have a nosepiece.
Thank you.

Class 1

The children all have a library book in their book bag. Please could they bring it back to school on a Friday to exchange it. Homework is also to be returned on a Friday - please return it inside the homework folder. Thank you.
